What the New Bill Asks From the State.

SIXTEEN COMPANIES WANTED

They are to be Officered and Governed After the Manner of the Government Forces, and are to be Stationed at Advantageous Points in the State.

The young men of this city who are interested in the formation of a naval militia will be glad to know that Representative Mason, of Cleveland, has introduced a bill which provides for its organization. There shall be 16 companies, although the governor has power to increase the number in times of peace.

The officers of the brigade, as provided in Mr. Mason's bill, shall consist of a captain, who shall be the chief of the brigade, and a staff, to consist of one commander, as chief of staff and executive officer; one lieutenant, as brigade adjutant and chief navigating officer; one lieutenant, as chief signal, ordnance and equipment officer; one paymaster, one surgeon, one chief engineer of the relative rank of lieutenant, and one ensign as signal officer. The officers shall be chosen and commissioned as soon as two battalions are completely organized. To each battalion there shall be one lieutenant commander, who shall command the same, and a staff, consisting of one lieutenant as battalion adjutant and executive officer, one ensign as signal and assistant navigating officer; one surgeon and one paymaster of the relative rank of lieutenant, junior grade, and one assistant surgeon of the relative rank of ensign. Each battalion shall consist of not less than two or more than two divisions or companies. To each division or company there shall be one lieutenant to command the same, one lieutenant, junior grade, and one ensign. Each part of a battalion not in the same county as the battalion headquarters shall be allowed one assistant surgeon of the relative rank of ensign and one additional ensign for each division. In addition to the officers just named, each division shall consist of 44 petty officers and seamen as a minimum and 84 petty officers and seamen as a maximum.

It is also provided that each division shall contain at least four men who have a practical knowledge of electricity, and four others with a practical knowledge of the construction and management of steam machinery. In reference to the selection of the various officers, the bill provides that the captain and commander shall be chosen by the commissioned officers of the naval brigade, and the battalion officers by the commissioned officers of their respective battalions, while the officers of the companies or divisions shall be elected by the officers and enlisted men of the companies, provided they are able to pass a satisfactory examination at the hands of an examining board, the establishment of which the bill also makes provision. This board shall consist of three officers of the battalion to which the applicant for examination belongs, and shall be appointed by the brigade commander.

Among the other provisions of the bill are the following: That the naval brigade shall be uniformed after a proper naval manner, as the commander-in-chief shall direct, out of appropriations for uniforms or supplies for the National Guard; the uniform shall be as near as possible that of the United States navy, with some distinctive mark to indicate the state.

That the naval militia shall perform the same amount of duty each year as required of the National Guard, except such duty, or any part of it, may be performed afloat. That officers and enlisted men of the naval militia shall receive the pay of the same relative rank of the United States navy, but they shall not receive any compensation from the state for duty performed by way of instruction or drill or otherwise, for which they shall receive compensation from the United States. That the rank given in the act is naval rank, being as follows, in comparison with the rank of the officers of the National Guard: Captain with colonel, commander with lieutenant colonel, lieutenant commander with major, lieutenant junior with lieutenant and ensign with second lieutenant. The relative position of seamen shall be that of private in the National Guard, and the relative position of petty officer with that of non-commissioned officer in the guard.

The system of discipline and exercise of the naval militia shall conform generally with that of the navy of the United States, except in certain matters which are left to the discretion of the commander-in-chief in the making of special rules. The commander-in-chief is authorized to apply to the president of the United States for the detail of commissioned officers, petty officers and seamen of the navy to act as inspectors and instructors in the act of naval warfare. Armories of the naval militia shall be situated immediately on or near the navigable waters of the state.

The companies or divisions composing the naval battalion may be raised, as provided by law, when the United States is ready to furnish arms and equipments, and where practicable vessels of war for the performance of duty required by law. All male citizens of this state being 18 years of age and under 45 years of age and are engaged in the navigation of the waters of the state and of the waters adjacent thereto, except persons exempted by law, shall be enrolled in the naval militia and perform military duty in the manner provided.

DISCORDANT NOTES.

All Was Not Well With the Opera House Music.

Surprise was expressed in the Grand Opera House last night when the orchestra arose, went out and did not return. It seems that Roy Young, the drummer, has been out of town, and during his absence his place was filled by Will Williams. One side of the story is that Manager Norris insisted on having Young play and that Henry Shenkle, the leader, objected, resulting in the disagreement. Mr. Norris did not want to discuss the matter today, but finally said that they wanted him to decide who should play the drum, and he refused with the above result. A pianist with the company made music during the remainder of the evening.

THE PHOENIX RECEPTION.

Over a Hundred People Danced and Were Merry.

The reception given by the Phoenix club at Brunt's Opera House last evening was among the notable society events of the season. Over 100 guests were present, and they danced from the time of gathering until a late hour. The music was good, the floor of the spacious room was in excellent condition, and the dancers could not have had better opportunity for enjoyment. The club had done every thing they could to add to the pleasure of the evening, and the appointments were perfect. It was a merry party, and among the most pleasant events society has enjoyed during the season.

STRANGER DOGS.

They Will be Entered at the Bench Show in Numbers.

Entries for the bench show have commenced to come in, and the Kennel club officers are confident that the exhibit will be larger than was anticipated. Parties out of the city have expressed a desire to place their dogs on exhibition, and several entries have been received.

Interest in dogs is manifest these days, the latest purchase having been made by a prominent attorney, who bought a handsome Scotch Cooley for a snug sum.

OBJECTS TO SCHOOL.

Officer Beardmore Has a Youth Who Will Not Study.

Truant Officer Beardmore filed a complaint this morning against John Bradley, a son of Robert Bradley, for non-attendance at school. The lad will not act in compliance with his parents' wishes and steadfastly refuses to attend school. This is not his first offense and he stands a good chance of landing in the reform farm if his father does not interfere, and the authorities insist on doing their duty.

NO CHANGE.

The Union is Satisfied With the Old Officers.

The meeting of the stockholders of the Union pottery was held yesterday afternoon, no change being made in any way. There was no dissatisfaction, and all expressed themselves pleased with the manner in which affairs have been conducted. The prospects for the year are bright, and the plant may be operated day and night to get a stock in the warehouse, the demand for ware being so active.

PAID THE BILL.

Doctor Alice Welch Will Not Abandon Her Practice.

Doctor Alice Welch, wife of the man who was arrested at New Castle for counterfeiting, has settled the claim against her by E. H. Wells for rent, and had her household goods released from attachment. It is given out by her friends in Wellsville that Doctor Welch will soon return to that place, and open another office.

WILL HAVE A DOCTOR

East End People Have Formed a Combination.

TWELVE DOLLARS EVERY YEAR

Is the Rate at Which They Will Pay for Medical Attendance, Whether They be Ill or Well—The Physician Demands 50 Families.

East End people who find the expenses of existence in excess of their desires have determined to curtail their expenses by looking first to their doctor bills.

The movement was inaugurated a few days ago, and has been gathering strength during that time. The plan is for a given number of families to pool issues and hire a doctor by the year. They have started a list, and to last night over 30 names had been signed. Each one pledges himself to pay the physician $1 a month whether he be sick or well, and there are certain restrictions which do not allow the subscriber to become delinquent. He must pay up or be dropped. The plan was laid before a physician well known in East End, and he promised to accept the position provided it could be made to yield him $600 a year; that is, he would take 50 families at $1 a month. The promoters of the plan think they have a good thing, and hope to see the paper filled by people who will pay. There are many residents of East End who have not yet been seen, but enough are expected to subscribe to fill the list.

THE MCKINLEY CLUB.

Talked Politics and Spent a Pleasant Evening.

The open meeting of the McKinley club last evening was well attended, and proved a pleasant event for the many Republicans present.

The committee having in charge the St. Louis trip deferred a report until the next meeting, and a vote was not taken on a plan for the observance of Lincoln's birthday. It was decided to discuss the Republican party and its relation to the tariff at the next meeting, and Chairman Will L. Taylor called on A. H. Clark for the "Origin of the Republican party." Mr. Clark responded with a carefully prepared speech, one of the best ever delivered to a Liverpool audience. He started with the remark that the Republican and Democratic parties were the natural outcome of conditions which disturbed the minds of statesmen before the formation of the government, and brought his audience down through the troublesome times which followed the Revolution. He declared that the two great parties were born in the discussion of the constitution, and while party organizations may change, principles never can. The Federalists advocated federal sovereignty and the Republicans, now the Democratic party, had a platform for state rule. Then he showed how slavery forced the parties even wider apart, and how the original question of state sovereignty affected the respective sides. From the troublesome time of the rebellion, Mr. Clark moved to the tariff and showed where the Republicans and Democrats split on it. His remarks on this important subject were to the point, and demonstrated the effect of this all important question upon the political history of the country, and the part it played in the birth of the Republican party. It was a good speech, and the gentleman was loudly applauded.

Addresses were also made by Colonel Watson, Mr. Beardmore, George Ashbaugh, W. H. Griggs, Squire Rose and Henry Porter. The gentlemen all spoke of the merits of Republicanism, and Colonel Watson said he could tell much easier why he was a Republican than for him to explain why he had ever been a Democrat. Four members were added to the roll of the club as a result of the meeting. The session was eminently successful, and the persons present spent a pleasant evening.

WENT THROUGH THE ICE.

Miss Mina Moon Got a Ducking Yesterday Afternoon.

The ice is not as sound as during the early days of the week, and a number of skaters have been given involuntary baths the past few days. Miss Mina Moon, of Fourth street, was a victim yesterday. She was skating near the glass works when she went through the ice, and was in danger of a worse fate than a ducking when friends, who chanced to be near, rescued her from the perilous position in which she was placed.

BARKER LOSES.

He Did Not Mean To, But That is the Law.

James Barker owned some of the fixtures in Sullivan's saloon when it was closed by Sheriff Gill because the Dow tax had not been paid. He had loaned these fixtures to Sullivan believing that if anything befel the proprietor of the place he could step in and claim his property, but it seems that his effects will be sold with the other furniture of the saloon. Barker is indignant, but there seems to be no remedy.

NO DATE.

The Sewer Pipe Plants Will Start When Trade is Good.

No date was set for the starting of the idle plants in the sewer pipe association, nor will there be one until trade is much better than it is at present. Orders are few and far between, and a prominent manufacturer is quoted as saying that there is not enough business to keep two of them going. When spring comes and there is a demand for pipe they can all start. The association will be in existence for another year, but the success of the compact has been such that some enthusiastic ones think it has come to stay.

THE BOARD WAS PROMPT.

That is Why the Smallpox Did Not Spread.

"Now that the smallpox patients are well and the city is clear of the disease I can talk without fearing to scare the people," said a leading physician. "We were in great danger, and only the prompt and energetic methods of Doctor Ogden and the board saved the city from an epidemic. Martin's Ferry was afraid to spend a little money, and it cost them $10,000 more than it would have done if the board had not been so economical. The same thing would have happened here; anyway, it is almost a miracle that we escaped."

MANY ACRES

Leased by Oil Men in the Vicinity of Chester.

Oil men, who are said to be from Pittsburgh, have been very active in the country across the river the past few days, and have succeeded in leasing 800 acres of land. The ground includes the face and top of the big hill, and extends back into the country some distance from the river. According to stories which come over the river today the company will soon have a few rigs in the territory, wells having already been located. The lease is but another evidence that oil men are searching the country over for a new field.

THEY WANT A LIGHT.

The Big Gas Jet On the Square Is Dark.

For two weeks people living in the vicinity of the square have been wondering why the big gas jet not far from city hall has been cold and dark. It has served the purpose long and well, and has been of great benefit, but now it's existence seems to have come to an end. Now the people want an electric light. They think the square is certainly important enough to be recognized, and application will likely be made to council for a light at that point. There are other lights needed in town, but no money to pay for them.

CLEAR'S MCGREGOR.

If the Confession Made by a Steubenville Woman is True.

A woman who said her name was Lizzie Davidson confessed to the Steubenville police the other night that she had killed Edward Stevenson in Pittsburgh 12 years ago. This is the case in which Jesse McGregory, who is now serving a life sentence in the penitentiary for the murder of Lizzie Ewing, was once interested. He was charged with killing Stevenson and arrested, but it could never be fastened upon him, although much was heard of it after his arrest for killing the Ewing woman.

CIRCUIT COURT.

The Cases From This City to Be Tried Next Week.

Special to News Review.

LISBON, Jan. 17.—Circuit court convenes here next Tuesday, and the following cases from East Liverpool are on the docket:

George W. Meredith versus the Herring Hall company; East Liverpool versus J. D. West; East Liverpool versus Sarah Hamill; E. A. Albright versus G. W. Meredith. The case of the Wellsville Electric Light company against R. T. McDonald is also listed for trial.

Another Man for Street Commissioner.

The latest candidate for the position of street commissioner is Robert L. McKenty, who has since the formation of the Union Pottery company been employed there as watchman. Mr. McKenty is qualified for the position, and has started in the campaign to win.

HE FLAGGED THE TRAIN

But Alfred Rogers Was Killed in Doing It.

A FEW MARKS ON THE HEAD

Rogers Lived at East End, But Was Employed on the Panhandle as Brakeman. A Relative Believed He Would be Killed on the Road.

The death of Alfred Rogers, the East End man who was killed at Collier, W. Va., yesterday morning, was not unexpected.

Rogers was formerly employed at the Globe pottery as watchman, but two months ago found employment on the Panhandle as brakeman. He was working in the yard at Collier and his train was shifting cars near the coal tipples yesterday morning, where there was a wreck. A few cars were derailed, and he noticed the accident but a moment before a passenger train was due. Rogers knew there would be a wreck unless the passenger was stopped, and he was hastening to flag it when he was struck and instantly killed. The engine struck him on the side of the head, and he was not mangled. The remains were brought here, accompanied by his wife, and interred this afternoon in Spring Grove. In addition to a widow, he leaves one child. George Whettan, father-in-law of the deceased, was much opposed to him going on the road, and said to a reporter last night that he was always expecting to hear of Rogers having been killed. The friends are heartbroken at the awful accident.

CANVASS CONSUMES CARDS.

An Estimate of What Will be Used in the Campaign.

Each municipal canvass requires a vast number of cards, but it is doubtful if any in the past consumed as many cards as are being scattered through the city at present. The News Review has within a week turned out over 50,000 cards for candidates, and there will be others. These cards are scattered everywhere in the city, but the majority of candidates never think of using more than 5,000 for a canvass. Others put more faith in the pasteboards and use a few thousand more.

ANOTHER COUPLE.

But They Escaped the Officers in Wellsville.

The story is told, with every show of truth, that the couple who registered in Wellsville as Mr. and Mrs. Smith and were arrested were not the only Liverpool people who should not have been there that night. Another couple have been very thoroughly discussed during the week, and because they happen to have clear records in the past their escapade is being earnestly discussed by their friends. The young girls implicated have always borne good characters.

For Marshal.

Alfred J. Johnson, the well-known killman whose card as a candidate for marshal appears in this issue of the News Review, is making a vigorous canvass of the city and is rapidly gaining strength. Mr. Johnson is conducting a clean, honest campaign and is putting forward his efforts so well that he is already observed as a formidable candidate.

THE NAVAL MILITIA

What the New Bill Asks From the State.

SIXTEEN COMPANIES WANTED

They are to be Officered and Governed After the Manner of the Government Forces, and are to be Stationed at Advantageous Points in the State.

The young men of this city who are interested in the formation of a naval militia will be glad to know that Representative Mason, of Cleveland, has introduced a bill which provides for its organization. There shall be 16 companies, although the governor has power to increase the number in times of peace.

The officers of the brigade, as provided in Mr. Mason's bill, shall consist of a captain, who shall be the chief of the brigade, and a staff, to consist of one commander, as chief of staff and executive officer; one lieutenant, as brigade adjutant and chief navigating officer; one lieutenant, as chief signal, ordnance and equipment officer; one paymaster, one surgeon, one chief engineer of the relative rank of lieutenant, and one ensign as signal officer. The officers shall be chosen and commissioned as soon as two battalions are completely organized. To each battalion there shall be one lieutenant commander, who shall command the same, and a staff, consisting of one lieutenant as battalion adjutant and executive officer, one ensign as signal and assistant navigating officer; one surgeon and one paymaster of the relative rank of lieutenant, junior grade, and one assistant surgeon of the relative rank of ensign. Each battalion shall consist of not less than two or more than two divisions or companies. To each division or company there shall be one lieutenant to command the same, one lieutenant, junior grade, and one ensign. Each part of a battalion not in the same county as the battalion headquarters shall be allowed one assistant surgeon of the relative rank of ensign and one additional ensign for each division. In addition to the officers just named, each division shall consist of 44 petty officers and seamen as a minimum and 84 petty officers and seamen as a maximum.

It is also provided that each division shall contain at least four men who have a practical knowledge of electricity, and four others with a practical knowledge of the construction and management of steam machinery. In reference to the selection of the various officers, the bill provides that the captain and commander shall be chosen by the commissioned officers of the naval brigade, and the battalion officers by the commissioned officers of their respective battalions, while the officers of the companies or divisions shall be elected by the officers and enlisted men of the companies, provided they are able to pass a satisfactory examination at the hands of an examining board, for the establishment of which the bill also makes provision. This board shall consist of three officers of the battalion to which the applicant for examination belongs, and shall be appointed by the brigade commander.

Among the other provisions of the bill are the following: That the naval brigade shall be uniformed after a proper naval manner, as the commander-in-chief shall direct, out of appropriations for uniforms or supplies for the National Guard; the uniform shall be as near as possible that of the United States navy, with some distinctive mark to indicate the state.

That the naval militia shall perform the same amount of duty each year as required of the National Guard, except such duty, or any part of it, may be performed afloat. That officers and enlisted men of the naval militia shall receive the pay of the same relative rank of the United States navy, but they shall not receive any compensation from the state for duty performed by way of instruction or drill or otherwise, for which they shall receive compensation from the state for duty performed by way of instruction or drill or otherwise, for which they shall receive compensation from the United States. That the rank given in the act is naval rank, being as follows, in comparison with the rank of the officers of the National Guard: Captain with colonel, commander with lieutenant colonel, lieutenant commander with major, lieutenant junior with lieutenant and ensign with second lieutenant. The relative position of seamen shall be that of private in the National Guard, and the relative position of petty officer with that of non-commissioned officer in the guard.

The system of discipline and exercise of the naval militia shall conform generally with that of the navy

of the United States, except in certain matters which are left to the discretion of the commander-in-chief in the making of special rules. The commander-in-chief is authorized to apply to the president of the United States for the detail of commissioned officers, petty officers and seamen of the navy to act as inspectors and instructors in the act of naval warfare. Armories of the naval militia shall be situated immediately on or near the navigable waters of the state.

The companies or divisions composing the naval battalion may be raised, as provided by law, when the United States is ready to furnish arms and equipments, and where practicable vessels of war for the performance of duty required by law. All male citizens of this state being 18 years of age and under 45 years of age and are engaged in the navigation of the waters of the state and of the waters adjacent thereto, except persons exempted by law, shall be enrolled in the naval militia and perform military duty in the manner provided.

NO DATE.

The Sewer Pipe Plants Will Start When Trade Is Good.

No date was set for the starting of the idle plants in the sewer pipe association, nor will there be one until trade is much better than it is at present. Orders are few and far between, and a prominent manufacturer is quoted as saying that there is not enough business to keep two of them going. When spring comes and there is a demand for pipe they can all start. The association will be in existence for another year, but the success of the compact has been such that some enthusiastic ones think it has come to stay.

THE BOARD WAS PROMPT.

That Is Why the Smallpox Did Not Spread.

"Now that the smallpox patients are well and the city is clear of the disease I can talk without fearing to scare the people," said a leading physician. "We were in great danger, and only the prompt and energetic methods of Doctor Ogden and the board saved the city from an epidemic. Martin's Ferry was afraid to spend a little money, and it cost them $10,000 more than it would have done if the board had not been so economical. The same thing would have happened here; anyway, it is almost a miracle that we escaped."

MANY ACRES

Leased by Oil Men in the Vicinity of Chester.

Oil men, who are said to be from Pittsburgh, have been very active in the country across the river the past few days, and have succeeded in leasing 800 acres of land. The ground includes the face and top of the big hill, and extends back into the country some distance from the river. According to stories which come over the river today the company will soon have a few rigs in the territory, wells having already been located. The lease is but another evidence that oil men are searching the country over for a new field.

THEY WANT A LIGHT.

The Big Gas Jet on the Square Is Dark.

For two weeks people living in the vicinity of the square have been wondering why the big gas jet not far from city hall has been cold and dark. It has served the purpose long and well, and has been of great benefit, but now its existence seems to have come to an end. Now the people want an electric light. They think the square is certainly important enough to be recognized, and application will likely be made to council for a light at that point. There are other lights needed in town, but no money to pay for them.

CLEAR'S MCGREGOR.

If the Confession Made by a Steubenville Woman Is True.

A woman who said her name was Lizzie Davidson confessed to the Steubenville police the other night that she had killed Edward Stevenson in Pittsburgh 12 years ago. This is the case in which Jesse McGregor, who is now serving a life sentence in the penitentiary for the murder of Lizzie Ewing, was once interested. He was charged with killing Stevenson and arrested, but it could never be fastened upon him, although much was heard of it after his arrest for killing the Ewing woman.

CIRCUIT COURT.

The Cases From This City to Be Tried Next Week.

Special to News Review.

Lisbon, Jan. 17.—Circuit court convenes here next Tuesday, and the following cases from East Liverpool are on the docket:

George W. Meredith versus the Herring Hall company; East Liverpool versus J. D. West; East Liverpool versus Sarah Hamill; E. A. Albright versus G. W. Meredith. The case of the Wellsville Electric Light company against R. T. McDonald is also listed for trial.

Another Man for Street Commissioner.

The latest candidate for the position of street commissioner is Robert L. McKenty, who has since the formation of the Union Pottery company been employed there as watchman. Mr. McKenty is qualified for the position, and has started in the campaign to win.

HE FLAGGED THE TRAIN

But Alfred Rogers Was Killed in Doing It.

A FEW MARKS ON THE HEAD

Rogers Lived at East End, But Was Employed on the Panhandle as Brakeman. A Relative Believed He Would be Killed on the Road.

The death of Alfred Rogers, the East End man who was killed at Collier, W. Va., yesterday morning, was not unexpected.

Rogers was formerly employed at the Globe pottery as watchman, but two months ago found employment on the Panhandle as brakeman. He was working in the yard at Collier and his train was shifting cars near the coal tipples yesterday morning, where there was a wreck. A few cars were derailed, and he noticed the accident but a moment before a passenger train was due. Rogers knew there would be a wreck unless the passenger was stopped, and he was hastening to flag it when he was struck and instantly killed. The engine struck him on the side of the head, and he was not mangled. The remains were brought here, accompanied by his wife, and interred this afternoon in Spring Grove. In addition to a widow, he leaves one child. George Whettan, father-in-law of the deceased, was much opposed to him going on the road, and said to a reporter last night that he was always expecting to hear of Rogers having been killed. The friends are heartbroken at the awful accident.

CANVASS CONSUMES CARDS.

An Estimate of What Will be Used in the Campaign.

Each municipal canvass requires a vast number of cards, but it is doubtful if any in the past consumed as many cards as are being scattered through the city at present. The News Review has within a week turned out over 50,000 cards for candidates, and there will be others. These cards are scattered everywhere in the city, but the majority of candidates never think of using more than 5,000 for a canvass. Others put more faith in the pasteboards and use a few thousand more.

ANOTHER COUPLE.

But They Escaped the Officers in Wellsville.

The story is told, with every show of truth, that the couple who registered in Wellsville as Mr. and Mrs. Smith and were arrested were not the only Liverpool people who should not have been there that night. Another couple have been very thoroughly discussed during the week, and because they happen to have clear records in the past their escapade is being earnestly discussed by their friends. The young girls implicated have always borne good characters.

For Marshal.

Alfred J. Johnson, the well-known kiloman whose card as a candidate for marshal appears in this issue of the News Review, is making a vigorous canvass of the city and is rapidly gaining strength. Mr. Johnson is conducting a clean, honest campaign and is putting forward his efforts so well that he is already observed as a formidable candidate.

Placing Bumpers on the Trestle.

A force of railroad men are at work today placing bumpers in position on the trestle at Thompson's pottery.

PERSONAL MENTION.

—Bent Grosshans is in Pittsburgh on business today.
—George Young, of the East End, has typhoid fever.
—A. H. Clark went to Salineville on business this afternoon.
—Frank Knowles went to Pittsburgh on business this afternoon.
—Mrs. J. T. Roberts is visiting her mother who resides in Canton.
—Frank Dickey and Daniel Nellis went to Beaver on business this afternoon.
—Mrs. N. T. Ashbaugh and daughter, Miss Bessie, are Pittsburgh visitors today.
—Mrs. Frank Rogers, of Salineville, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. E. Hill, Third street.
—Clell Mannypenny, of the East End, has returned from Burgettstown after a lengthy visit at that place.
—Mrs. J. E. McDonald has returned from Gallipolis, where she has been visiting at the home of her father, Captain Cox.
—Mrs. Sarah Shepherd returned to her home in Eldridgeville today after a short visit with Mrs. John A. George, of McKinnon addition.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., FRIDAY, JAN. 17.

For President,
WILLIAM MCKINLEY,
Of Ohio.

AND now comes the story that two South American republics are about to fight each other. Where is it going to end?

ENGLAND is at her old tricks. Leading statesmen say in thunder tones that she has no desire for war, and the ship yards and armories are at once put on double turn.

GOVERNOR BRADLEY, of Kentucky, advocates a law that will punish the newspaper correspondents who send wild, untruthful stories from the state. The governor is unkind, and has no sympathy for the numerous penny-a-liners of his state who make a living from their imagination.

WILSON A. KORNIS has purchased the stock of the Tuscarawas Tribune, and now controls the paper he founded and so ably edits. Mr. Kornis is a newspaper man who possesses more than enough talent and love for his work to cut out for himself a clean pathway to success. It is an assured fact that the shadow of the Tribune will never grow less while he is in control.

TO STOP BRIBERY.

Among the many bills that have been dropped into the legislative hopper at Columbus, few, if any, are more important than the measure of Mr. Davis, a Franklin county statesman. He wants the bribery laws made effective, and has probably taken the best course to reach that end. At present the law places the man who offers a bribe on the same level as he who accepts it, and their interests are so closely related that one will not testify against the other. Mr. Davis does away with this bad feature of the law by exempting from prosecution the individual who gives testimony leading to the conviction of any one accused of bribery. The penalty is also increased from five years to imprisonment for life. It is hoped the bill will become a law, and that it will be vigorously enforced. Good men and brainy men find their way to the Ohio legislature, but there is something wrong in the system. Laws are placed upon the statute books which should not be there, and would never have gotten there if some influence that should never be in the halls of legislation had not at some time appeared. Experience has taught that only the most stringent laws enforced at every opportunity will kill the evil of bribery, and no people can have good legislation when laws that are unjust and unwise are passed by undue influence.

Many stubborn and aggravating cases of rheumatism that were believed to be incurable and accepted as life legacies, have yielded to Chamberlain's Pain Balm, much to the surprise and gratification of the sufferers. One application will relieve the pain and suffering and its continued use insures an effectual cure. For sale by A. H. Bulger, druggist.

Caution about the Use and Selection of Spectacles
Persons having recent vision will be able to read this print as a distance of 10 inches from the eye with ease and comfort. Also will be able to read it with each eye separately. If unable to do so your eyes are defective and should have immediate attention. When the eyes become tired from reading, or if the lenses are blurred and run together, it is a sure indication that the lenses are needed. The lenses sold in the cheap goods are of an inferior quality and have imperfectly formed surfaces. Continued use of these poor lenses will result in positive injury from the constant strain upon the muscles of accommodation to supply the defects in the glass.

Semi-Annual Clearance and Remnant Sale.

We have never advertised an article in a false or misleading way, but in every case make it a point to give the trade just what we say we will. When we say we will offer certain lines of goods at HALF PRICE, we mean it. When we say the Styles are good, we mean that too. When we say, all wool or yard wide, or any other phrase, which to the trade signifies Quality, Value, etc., we will show just such goods.

Our Word is Our Bond.

Your Interests are Ours.

ON

Saturday Morning, January 18,

Our next great sale goes on. DON'T MISS IT. There will be good things for everybody. Our past record justifies us in making this statement. And now before enumerating the bargains we have for you in this first great sale of 1896, we wish to offer our sincere thanks for the liberal patronage of the past, and trust your interests will be best served by trading with us in the future.

Stock taking is over

We know the quantity and condition of every piece of goods in our store. Some are soiled and shopworn, (not really damaged, but good as ever to the consumer). Some are short lengths, but can always be used to advantage by someone. Then there are odds and ends and broken lines in all kinds of goods, but best of all, (for you, not for us) is where we have bought too heavily in some lines. These goods are good as new in every respect, but we need room for new spring stuff. So

Out they go at Prices Never Before Put on Such Values.

1 Case Canton Flannel, 6 1-4c quality, goes at 3 1-2c a yard. 25 pieces Good Quality Bleached Linen Crash, a 7c value for 4 1-2c a yard. 1,000 yards of Gingham, Good Staple Styles for Aprons or Dresses, worth 6 1-4 to 10c, will go at 3 1-2c. 1 lot Dress Ginghams, Fine Goods, go at 9c a yard. 1 lot, about 10 dozen Ladies' Waists, all wool, made in good plain styles, colors are Black, Navy and Cardinal, sold at $2.00 to $2.50, your choice for 25c.

55 pieces of Dress Goods in the Slaughter.

13 pieces are Fancy Mories, Hop Sackings, Etc., goods that sold at from $1.00 to $1.40; all go at 65c a yard. 6 pieces Fancy Armures, in black and colors, good things both in style and quality, worth 60 to 75c a yard, go at 45c. 20 pieces, a mixed lot, dark and light colorings, some slightly soiled but all can be used to advantage, 35 to 50c values, your choice for 25c a yard. 11 pieces 25 and 35c goods, good things in these for school and house wear, to go at 15c a yard. 5 pieces, good styles, black and colors, 20 and 25c goods, for 12 1-2c a yard.

Then there are remnants in Dress Goods, Lots of them.

Remnants and Odd Lots in all kinds of goods. This means bargains all along the line. BARGAINS in Hosiery and Gloves. BARGAINS in Underwear of all kinds. BARGAINS in Blankets and Comforts. BARGAINS in Lace Curtains and Draperies. We cannot tell half the story, but we can demonstrate it to your satisfaction if you will come and see what we have to offer.

Our great half price sale on Wraps and Furs is still on.

Have you thought of this sale seriously. Do you realize that $2.50 buys a good $5.00 Jacket. That $5.00 buys a fine $10.00 garment, and so on all through the line. Now do not compare this Wrap and Fur sale with others, who advertise goods two to six years old—out of style—badly out—but remember every garment that we offer in this sale is this years goods, UP TO DATE, IN STYLE AND ACTUALLY WORTH DOUBLE THE PRICE now asked for them. We have about 25 garments that are one and two years old. These are on a rack separate from other stock. They are good goods worth from $5.00 to $20.00; you can have your choice for $2.00. They are not bad styles. Come and see them, for Ladies', Misses and Children.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

F. W. Loraine has moved from this city to Beaver Falls.

Engineer George is in Yellow Creek township today surveying a mine.

Councilman Challis cannot work because he was recently vaccinated.

Miss Rena Arnold, daughter of Superintendent Arnold, of the East End flint mill, is very ill.

A pleasant event for East End people was the social at the residence of Reverend Green last evening.

Another car arrived for the street railway yesterday afternoon, and will be fitted out for service on the line as soon as possible.

The morning train east was delayed 15 minutes today while the crew waited for the pony to attach a special baggage car to the train.

Olive Tuel, the young girl who was placed in the hospital yesterday, will be taken to the infirmary today. She is in a delicate condition, and the trustees cannot care for her here.

Two employees of the East End pottery, whose names could not be learned, became involved in a row yesterday, and fought out their differences. It is said to have been a rattling mill.

Martin Leatherow, the East End man who fell over a culvert and was painfully hurt, afterward suing the city for damages, is much better. His injured arm is regaining its power.

The clay miners employed by Knowles, Taylor & Anderson have returned to work, and East End people take it as an indication that the pipe works will soon be in operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rowley, of Chester, celebrated the thirteenth anniversary of their marriage last evening, and a number of people from this city helped them in the enjoyment of the occasion.

The insurance has been adjusted on Martin Brozka's property, $700 being the amount allowed by the company. The work of rebuilding the destroyed structure will be commenced as soon as the weather permits.

A reception will be tendered Reverend Sloan and wife at the North Side chapel this evening. Reverend Sloan is the gentleman who recently took charge of the missions connected with the First Presbyterian church.

Lieutenant Finley, of Company E, has decided that there will be no meeting on Monday evening, because he has received an announcement from Colonel Gyger that the election for captain will soon be ordered.

Residents of the Calcutta road want an electric light at the Gaston bend. It is an actual necessity for the place is dangerous, and the taxpayers of that section are very earnest in asking council for the favor. Turn on the light.

Members of the aid and literary society of St. Aloysius' church are indignant because a local paper announced that they would have a dance. They say that this is diametrically opposed to their principles, and places them in a bad light in the city.

A box of apples has been at the passenger station a week awaiting a claimant, and Baggage-master Smith thinks they will soon be unfit for use if the owner does not call. Whether he means that they will be eaten or destroyed by rot is not explained.

A large number of friends of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Smith, of East End, called at their home last night and helped them celebrate the eighth anniversary of their wedding. An enjoyable evening was spent and the occasion was made one long to be remembered.

Captain Parker is distributing to interested parties a report of the work done by the Salvation Army in Ohio during the past two years. It is exhaustive, and contains a complete outline of the good accomplished by the army together, with pictures of brigade and staff officers.

A second street saloonist and a barber doing business in the same part of the city, quarreled over a stovepipe yesterday afternoon, each claiming an interest and neither willing to release his claim. They came to blows, and the saloon man got a pair of black eyes, while the barber went away with evidences of the fray.

Word has been received here that Miss Ida Sloan, who recently lived here and was a member of the Christian church, had died at her home near Matamoras from consumption. Deceased suffered with the disease for several years. The news will be heard with regret by the many friends she made while a resident of the city.

Hon. A. H. McCoy is home from Columbus, where he attended a meeting of the wool growers of Ohio. A resolution demanding a restoration of the duty on wool was introduced, and after some discussion, passed. Columbus county got one officer in the person of John Pow, who is a member of the executive committee. The wool growers are anxious for a higher tariff on wool, and can't think the bill in congress will do them a great deal of good.

We feel kind of lonesome since Christmas. We had gotten used to the scramble and hustle of the holiday times, and the after-quiet makes us feel as if we had been dumped in the middle of a prairie. Rent and a hundred other expenses go on just as before, and as we can't make money anyway, we might as well lose it with a crowd as in solitude. So here goes prices to make things hum at our store in the Diamond. Come in and look through our superb stock of Overcoats, pick out one to suit you, and deduct one-fourth off the price. For example, if a coat is marked $16 take it along at $12; or if marked at $8 take it along at $6. In our suit and pants department we will make you reductions that will open your eyes. ## THOMPSON WAS FREED

The Jury Took a Few Ballots and Then Acquitted Him.

HIS FRIENDS MADE A GAIN

After the First Ballot and Won Out—It Did Not Take Long to Reach a Decision—Costs Will be Demanded in the Rigo Case.

The case against W. H. Thompson, charged with breaking the screen ordinance, is at an end, and Thompson is free.

The arguments were long and able, and the jury retired with the audience in doubt as to the result, but it only required an hour to reach a decision. There were in all three ballots, the first showing that nine were in favor of the defendant and the remainder imagined he should be convicted. The second ballot was even more favorable for Thompson, two of his opponents having joined the majority. Then there was a lull, followed by a vote, which gave the unanimous consent of the jury for a verdict of acquittal. After the verdict was handed in Mayor Gilbert had a conference with Solicitor Clark, the result of which was the announcement today that the costs in the Rigo case will have to be insured before it goes to trial. This is the outcome of the agitation in council for more law on the matter.

THE THOMPSON VERDICT.

An Actual Surprise and Wonder to George the Growler.

EDITOR NEWS REVIEW:—How did the jury reach such an absurd decision as that of last night? It will stand always as a verdict against right, justice and common sense, and those most interested in forming such a conclusion will be marked by all honest and square men. The ordinance respecting the screens was passed and reads that the main object is in order that the public at large may have a clear and unobstructed view of the interior of the saloon, and Thompson's saloon has been so arranged that no view shall be had of the interior, unless one first steps upon the steps for that purpose. Talking with one of the jurors who was on duty on the first trial, when the jury disagreed, he said: "I would have liked to have cleared Thompson, the poor devil, as he has been in hard luck; but the law shows so plainly, backed by testimony, that he was transgressing the ordinance, that I was compelled to vote against him, and would have continued to do so, had the jury remained out forever." The late trial was simply a farce, an outrage, a bid for saloon patronage and to shut off action against other violators of the screen ordinance, and every good and true citizen, every believer in the enforcement of law and order, should take action to see to it that the law shall not be thus outraged.

GEORGE THE GROWLER.

There is good reason for the popularity of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Davis & Buzard, of West Monterey, Clarion company, Pa., says: "It has cured people that our physicians could do nothing for. We persuaded them to try a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and they now recommend it with the rest of us." Twenty-five and 50 cent bottles for sale by A. H. Bulger, druggist.

Going to Wellsville.

The Junior Mechanics will go to Wellsville in large numbers this evening and will help the council there celebrate its anniversary. An elaborate program will be carried out and refreshments served.

Carlton Cornwell, foreman of the Gazette, Middletown, N. J., believes that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy should be in every home. He used it for a cold and it effected a speedy cure. He says: "It is indeed a grand remedy. I can recommend to all. I like also seen it used for whooping cough, with the best results." Twenty-five and 50 cent bottles for sale by A. H. Bulger, druggist.

Save You Money.

We feel kind of lonesome since Christmas. We had gotten used to the scramble and hustle of the holiday times, and the after-quiet makes us feel as if we had been dumped in the middle of a prairie. Rent and a hundred other expenses go on just as before, and as we can't make money anyway, we might as well lose it with a crowd as in solitude. So here goes prices to make things hum at our store in the Diamond. Come in and look through our superb stock of Overcoats, pick out one to suit you, and deduct one-fourth off the price. For example, if a coat is marked $16 take it along at $12; or if marked at $8 take it along at $6. In our suit and pants department we will make you reductions that will open your eyes. Come at once as our stock must be reduced.

THOMPSON WAS FREED

The Jury Took a Few Ballots and Then Acquitted Him.

HIS FRIENDS MADE A GAIN

After the First Ballot and Won Out—It Did Not Take Long to Reach a Decision—Costs Will be Demanded in the Rigo Case.

The case against W. H. Thompson, charged with breaking the screen ordinance, is at an end, and Thompson is free.

The arguments were long and able, and the jury retired with the audience in doubt as to the result, but it only required an hour to reach a decision. There were in all three ballots, the first showing that nine were in favor of the defendant and the remainder imagined he should be convicted. The second ballot was even more favorable for Thompson, two of his opponents having joined the majority. Then there was a lull, followed by a vote, which gave the unanimous consent of the jury for a verdict of acquittal. After the verdict was handed in Mayor Gilbert had a conference with Solicitor Clark, the result of which was the announcement today that the costs in the Rigo case will have to be insured before it goes to trial. This is the outcome of the agitation in council for more law on the matter.

THE THOMPSON VERDICT.

An Actual Surprise and Wonder to George the Growler.

EDITOR NEWS REVIEW:—How did the jury reach such an absurd decision as that of last night? It will stand always as a verdict against right, justice and common sense, and those most interested in forming such a conclusion will be marked by all honest and square men. The ordinance respecting the screens was passed and reads that the main object is in order that the public at large may have a clear and unobstructed view of the interior of the saloon, and Thompson's saloon has been so arranged that no view shall be had of the interior, unless one first steps upon the steps for that purpose. Talking with one of the jurors who was on duty on the first trial, when the jury disagreed, he said: "I would have liked to have cleared Thompson, the poor devil, as he has been in hard luck; but the law shows so plainly, backed by testimony, that he was transgressing the ordinance, that I was compelled to vote against him, and would have continued to do so, had the jury remained out forever." The late trial was simply a farce, an outrage, a bid for saloon patronage and to shut off action against other violators of the screen ordinance, and every good and true citizen, every believer in the enforcement of law and order, should take action to see to it that the law shall not be thus outraged.

GEORGE THE GROWLER.

There is good reason for the popularity of Chamberlain's Cough remedy. Davis & Buzard, of West Monterey, Clarion company, Pa., says: "It has cured people that our physicians could do nothing for. We persuaded them to try a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough remedy and they now recommend it with the rest of us." Twenty-five and 50 cent bottles for sale by A. H. Bulger, druggist.

Going to Wellsville.

The Junior Mechanics will go to Wellsville in large numbers this evening and will help the council there celebrate its anniversary. An elaborate program will be carried out and refreshments served.

Carlton Cornwell, foreman of the Gazette, Middletown, N. J., believes that Chamberlain's Cough remedy should be in every home. He used it for a cold and it effected a speedy cure. He says: "It is indeed a grand remedy, I can recommend to all. I have also seen it used for whooping cough, with the best results." Twenty-five and 50 cent bottles for sale by A. H. Bulger, druggist.

Gone to Lisbon.

Officer Earl went to Lisbon this morning in answer to a summons from Prosecutor Speaker. He is to give bond for the appearance when the case against him is tried next month.
